Communication skills

Cultural Management, Cultural Conflict Management, inter-cultural communication

I taught in Romania and France, at university level, to Romanian and French students.

While in Montreal, I taught French as Second Language to international students, Chinese, Russian, Latino-American, students from the United States, India, Pakistan, Iran, Afghanistan, Bulgaria, Korea, Canada.

I wrote and published a book about cross-cultural communication and cross-cultural conflict (Zidul de aer, The Aëreal Wall). I studied cultural gestures and taught short classes in order to raise awareness about the differences in gestures across cultures.

I was a consultant in cultural management for Siemens Timișoara (Chinese culture).

Job-related skills

- I have a seven years experience in teaching Romanian. I also speak French, Italian and Spanish. I read in Catalan and Portuguese as well. I have a good grasp of Romance linguistics in general, thanks to my background in Latin (I taught Latin for eight years in University).

Computer skills ▪ Internet, Microsoft Office, Adobe Photoshop

Other skills ▪ Archaeology is a hobby related to my professional background. I took part in Roman archaeological digs, the excavation sites of Tibiscum and Mehadia (Ad Mediam). In Mehadia I had the pleasure to discover a Roman inn, called now "casa lui Dan" (Dan's house).
