The liturgical life of the Orthodox Church is deeply rooted in the celebration of the Feasts of our Lord Jesus Christ and of His Most Holy Mother. These Feasts, whether fixed or movable, constitute a theological and spiritual synthesis of the Church's dogmatic teaching, expressed poetically and profoundly through sacred hymnography. This study seeks to explore the historical evolution and theological depth of these Feasts, with particular attention to the hymnographic tradition that both reflects and shapes the Orthodox understanding of the salvific events commemorated.
